TROLLWOOD FUNDRAISER

Trollwood Performing Arts School Caring Catalog

For Immediate Release

November 23, 2020: Trollwood Performing Arts School is excited to partner with the FM Area Foundation for its Caring Catalog online giving event. We hope you considering giving the gift of art this holiday season! The campaign takes place November 24 to December 14.

Trollwood Performing Arts School enriches the lives of young people through its educational programming by creating opportunities for our youth. With your generous support, we will be able to provide scholarships, supplies (such as jazz, tap, or ballet shoes), and lunches for all students who are unable to afford the fees but wish to participate at Trollwood during the summer of 2021! Most importantly, your donation empowers students to overcome challenges, gives them guidance from caring adults, and helps them reach their fullest potential.

Every size donation contributes to endless opportunities for youth. Here are some tangible impacts of your generosity:

- $81 pays for a full week of tuition
- $50 provides a pair of dance shoes
- $100 serves 17 meals to students

All donations are tax deductible. Immediately following your donation, FM Area Foundation will send you a confirmation and detailed tax receipt.

Caring Catalog is an online giving event with many donation options. Those are:

- Online donations via this link
- Checks made payable to the FM Area Foundation with Trollwood Performing Arts School in the memo line
- Gifts of stock – Please contact Patty Mastel or Greg Diehl at the FM Area Foundation office at 701.234.0756

Thank you for supporting Trollwood Performing Arts School and giving students the opportunity to learn, grow, succeed, and reach their full potential. For more information on the donation event, visit the Caring Catalog website.
